Q: Does LibreOffice support GridView in Excel

format? I am unable to use gridview in openoffice calc to show my excel data. Its giving me this error "Cannot perform this operation because some aspects of the solution are incorrect." I am getting these error in my system, Checking Office 2010 and earlier: Warning (Office): Could not import Excel file 'FILE NAME' because of a field being unsupported. Checking Office 365: Error (Office): General error occurred. Error in file Checking LibreOffice: Unable to open the file: The parameter is incorrect. What should I do?

A: I found the solution. The problem was closed on merge. There are 2 ways to do this.

Select all cells and close current sheet. Click on File -> Close and open it again. Select the cell you want to export and right click on it then open the "Open" menu then "Excel" and choose "Save as". f30f4ceada
